

Dear Mr. Bruff,

You should give us more homework and harder homework.

We should also get harder classwork.

We should get more homework because it helps us review what we learned at school and it will affect our future. (like getting a good SAT score to get into a good college.)

From,

You already know who!

P.S. Please take this seriously

