

We should have more

homework!!!  more

Dear, Mr. Bruff

We should have more home work because homework helps us review our work and what we've learned throughout the day. For an example:

My sister is in 8th grade, and you can probably imagine she learns a lot in school, but how does she remember it all? She has a lot of homework.

Another example is

After you learn something, you should probably practice it, but one page, isn't enough, you need more problems to get used to using the strategies that you learned.

Please give us more homework.

Your student

[Faint, illegible handwriting on lined paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side. The text is mostly mirrored and difficult to decipher.]